

Contact:

KMWP
Kennesaw State University
1000 Chastain Road
Kennesaw, Georgia
www.kmwp.org

A National Writing Project Site

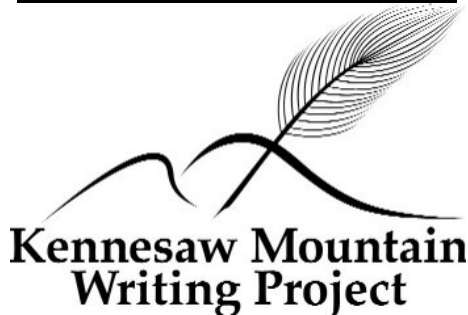

Are you ready for Honors / AP classes?

Prepare for high school success at the KMWP Youth Writing Academy
for Rising 9th and 10th Graders

Write from the Beginning

June 13—17 OR July 11—15
9:00 a.m.—1:00 p.m.

Kennesaw State University
1000 Chastain Road, Kennesaw, Georgia
(Staff available from 8:00 a.m.—2:00 p.m.; English Building 27)

YOUTH WRITING ACADEMY

Gain the skills and confidence for high school writing, discover your voice, and develop digital literacy
through creative and fun writing techniques featuring:

- Writing for the digital generation: pod casts, wikis, blogs, and digital storytelling
- Creative non-fiction
- Personal Narrative

Each participant receives:

- A KMWP T-Shirt
- A writing journal

Parents Invited!
Friday Finale (June 17 OR July 15)
Writing Academy Showcase
12:00 p.m.

Registration Information:
Total cost—$125.00
To register, complete the application and submit payment to KMWP, Kennesaw State University. Register online at www.kmwp.org (Youth Writing Academy).
Participants should provide their own lunch and snacks daily.

Meet your KMWP Writing Coaches:
Lane Dye, AP High School English
Mary Stillerman, 8th Grade Language Arts

Both writing coaches are KMWP Teacher Consultants, Cobb County teachers and gifted endorsed.